

S. P. ASSESSMENT IS EQUALIZED

Changes Are Made in the Figures Fixed by County Assessor Henry P. Dalton.

At the meeting of the Supervisors as a Board of Equalization this morning five applications for a reduction or correction of assessment of property owned by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company were made in behalf of that company by E. Black Ryan, the tax agent of the company, with the result that some of the applications were granted and others were taken under advisement.

Those granted were as follows: Assessment of thirty-four-acre tract, Peralta street yards, as a double assessment from $15,000 to one dollar.

Block signal system in town of Berkeley, from $5,000 to $5.

Reducing area of West Oakland yards subject to local assessor, from 67.60 acres to 24.4 acres, and reducing the assessments thereon for land and improvements from $240,000 to $75,000.

The assessments taken under advisement were as follows:

Property, Peralta yards.....$142,000
Narrow Gauge steamers..... 102,000
Broad Gauge steamers..... 181,000
The total assessment of the real and personal property, as made by Assessor Dalton, was as follows:

Peralta street yards.....$157,000
Narrow Gauge steamers..... 102,000
Broad Gauge steamers..... 181,000
Block signal, Berkeley..... 5,000
Land and improvements, Oakland Point..... 240,000

Total.....$685,000
Amount of reduction.....$ 90,004
Amount under advisement.....$594,996

The matters were taken under advisement to enable Supervisor Talcott to look carefully into them.

RYAN APPEARS.
E. B. Ryan appeared before the Board at 11 o'clock and with characteristic suavity, presented his various applications. He said if it would take up too much time to consider the applications at that time, he would be ready at any time to appear before the Board and explain the same.

The Board decided that it might be advisable to take some of the applications under consideration.

PERALTA STREET YARDS.
The first application referred to was a tract on which the Peralta street yards are located, comprising 116 acres, from which were deducted two acres, which belong to Oakland, leaving a residue of 114 acres. The assessment of this land was $142,000.

THE VALUATION.
The petitioner averred that this valuation was excessive because a recent survey showed that the tract in question comprised only 102½ acres. The cost value of that land, the petitioner held, did not exceed $80,000, because when the railroad company purchased the same from the Water Front Company, the consideration was only $40,000.

The petitioner further showed that of said 102½ acres fully ninety acres were covered with water at high tide. Mr. Ryan then went on to show that a tract containing a number of acres in that vicinity, which Assessor Dalton had assessed at $15,000, was included in the larger tract of 102½ acres, as was shown by a recent survey of competent engineers. This, Mr.

Black held, was assessing the smaller tract a second time.
He asked that the assessment of $15,000 be reduced to one dollar to the end that the assessment might disappear from the assessment roll.

CUMMING'S OPINION.
George M. Cumming, a civil engineer, who has been in the employ of the Water Front Company and is now in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, testified in support of the facts contained in the petition, as to the size of the two tracts, the amount paid for the land by the Southern Pacific Company, and the fact that the smaller tract was already included in the assessment of the larger one.

"Did we have this matter before us before?" asked Supervisor Mitchell.

"No," replied Mr. Ryan, "it was never discovered."

A map was then produced and Mr. Cumming explained the outlines of the same showing the relative boundaries of the two tracts.

The map was examined by Assessor Dalton and Deputy Robinson and both admitted that it showed features which were new to them.

DOUBLE ASSESSMENT.
Assessor Dalton, however, stated that the double assessment was not a mistake on his part, because it was based on a showing made by the company.

Cumming then stated that the larger tract was assessed at $114,000 and that it was not worth more than $30,000, because the larger part of it was under tide water, the improvements being located on the high ground.

The question of the assessment of the larger tract was submitted to the Board.

NARROW GAUGE FERRIES.
Mr. Ryan then asked for reduction of the assessment one-half of each of the narrow gauge ferry steamers, as follows: Steamer Bay City from $20,000 to $12,500; Emerald from $25,000 to $22,500; Garden City from $12,000 to $9,500; Newark from $45,000 to $37,500.

It was stated that Mr. Dalton's valuation of one-half of these steamers was greater than that of the assessment by Assessor Dodge of San Francisco, of the other half of each boat, and the matter accordingly was continued for further consideration.

Mr. Ryan asked for a reduction of the assessment of one-half of Broad-gauge ferries as follows: Steamer Oakland from $15,000 to $30,000; Piedmont from $35,000 to $30,000; Berkeley from $60,000 to $55,000; Transit from $20,000 to $15,000; Thoroughfare from $20,000 to $15,000.

Ryan asserted that the last sum in each case was the assessed valuation of the steamers in question in San Francisco, and that the boats were not worth more in this county than they were across the bay.

The matter was taken under advisement.

Mr. Ryan said the Assessor had placed a valuation of $5000 on the Southern Pacific Company's block signal system in Berkeley, consisting of towers, wires, signals, etc. This, he claimed was not assessed by the State Board of Equalization. He asked the valuation be reduced to $5 for the reason that the property in question had no identity and it was the duty of

EQUITABLE PENSIONS STAND

Directors Are Getting Salaries Down to a Business Basis.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society held two meetings today covering a period of three hours.

The first was an adjourned session from yesterday and the business included the election of George L. Vinton, of this city, and Ernest B. Kruttschnitt, of New Orleans, to the board. The office of chairman was abolished, as previously announced.

The committee on pensions reported and in almost every instance its recommendations were adopted.

A number of pensions will be discontinued and others reduced fifty per cent of salaries received by officials or employees at the time for severance of their connections. It developed today that in addition to the pension of $25,000 a year to the widow of Henry B. Hyde, there was voted at the same time a pension of $18,000 to Mrs. James W. Alexander, the wife of the former president, to take effect on the death of Mr. Alexander.

Those two items have been regarded as legal liabilities or annuities in lieu of certain contracts waived by the founder of the society and by Mr. Alexander. The matter will be submitted to the Equitable special counsel, Austin G. Fox and Wallace S. Macfarland, James H. Hyde was not present at today's meeting.

BATTLE OVER THE REMAINS

Undertakers Quarrel Over Who Will Get the Burial Fee.

BERKELEY, July 27.—After lying in the Berkeley branch morgue since last Saturday, while undertakers, rival fraternal organizations and relatives fought over the disposition of the remains, the burial of W. H. Berger, who was killed at Lorin by a Southern Pacific train five days ago, took place today from the undertaking parlors of J. E. Finney in Oakland.

Meanwhile Health Officer Gillman is considering the advisability of swearing to a complaint charging Finney with violating the State law, which prohibits the removal of a body until a permit for burial has first been obtained from the local health officers.

This Finney neglected to do, according to the statement of J. E. Streightiff, deputy coroner and manager of the undertaking parlors of Brown and Streightiff in Berkeley. Streightiff reported the matter to Gillman and he in turn reported to Marshal Vollmer, but Vollmer says he will take no action against the undertaker until Dr. Gillman swears to a complaint.

Berger was organized for the Order of Americans. He was also a prominent member of the Knights of Pythias of Lincoln, Nebraska. The squabble over the remains began last Saturday, when Finney appeared in Berkeley and on behalf of the Americans demanded the body. Streightiff would not permit the removal of the body from the morgue until relatives had been heard from and an inquest gotten under way. At the same time the local lodge of Knights of Pythias received telegrams from Lincoln ordering them to bury the body. They desire that Streightiff retain charge of the corpse.

On Monday Finney came back with a telegram from P. A. Berger, a brother of the deceased, who resides in Lincoln, ordering Finney to hold the body until further word. Following Berger's first telegram, a second was received from him by the Knights of Pythias lodge here finally authorizing them to conduct the funeral.

But Finney was not to be outdone so easily. He located the wife of the dead man in Portland and secured a telegram from her authorizing him to conduct the funeral. On this showing Coroner Mehrmann directed Streightiff to give up the body.

Last night Finney hastily removed the corpse from the Berkeley morgue, but not until he had paid Streightiff's bill for embalming. Now he is threatened with prosecution because, in his haste, he failed to get the proper certificate from the health officer.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL HOLDS A MEETING
TOPEKA, Kas., July 27.—The meeting of the State Executive Council was held late this afternoon. At noon Governor Hoch stated that State Treasurer S. Kelly's bonds for $40,000 seemed good and would be approved. Other members of the Executive Council spoke in the same way.

BOY IS CHLOROFORMED BY TRAMPS.
BERKELEY, July 27.—The police of Berkeley have been scouring the haunts of tramps and desperate characters the greater part of today, but have been unable to get any trace of the thug who chloroformed and robbed fourteen-year-old Rockward Flint on the University campus yesterday afternoon. Since the case was reported to the police two suspects have been arrested, but young Flint could identify neither, so both were released from custody.

The assault made on the Flint boy is one of the most peculiar that has come to light for some time. The lad was returning across the campus after having performed an errand for his employer, J. A. Jay, a Shattuck Avenue grocer, when he was accosted by a tall man, black whiskered, and wearing a shabby suit of dark material and a black slouch hat. The meeting took place in a lonely, thickly wooded part of the campus below the University fruit orchard. The tramp grabbed the boy by the throat and quickly placed a handkerchief saturated with chloroform to his nose and mouth.

Two hours later the lad regained his consciousness and found himself lying in the bottom of a ravine about twenty feet from where the original attack took place. His pockets were turned inside out and his gold ring had been taken from his finger.

PIONEER WOMAN IS CALLED

Mrs. Sidney Lemon, Among the First to Live on Broadway, Passes Away.

MRS. SIDNEY LEMON

After attaining more than four-score years, and, though suffering from many of the infirmities of old age, still retaining meekness of spirit and cheerfulness of heart, Mrs. Sidney Lemon, widow of the pioneer doctor of that name, died at her home, 706 Broadway, yesterday.

None of the premonitory ailments which foreshadow dissolution brought sorrowing relatives and friends to the bedside of the deceased, because the end came and was not discovered until yesterday, when loving hands knocked at the door of Mrs. Lemon's apartment to arouse her in order that she might partake of her frugal morning meal.

HER BEST FRIEND.

This was a daily custom on the part of Mrs. Janet E. Ware, who for more than a quarter of a century has been a friend, and who during the past fifteen years has been the constant companion of and attendant upon the deceased.

The Coroner was notified and arrangements have been made for the burial, which will take place tomorrow in Mountain View cemetery. The deceased is to be interred beside the remains of her husband, Dr. Sidney Lemon, who passed from this life twenty-three years ago.

Dr. Lemon was one of the early physicians and druggists of Oakland. He established himself in business on Broadway, second door above Third street, in about 1858 or 1859.

THEIR GUESTS.
He bought the property and built his store, which had a resident attachment and did a thriving business. He and his wife were prominent among the educated society people of the time, and as their guests they frequently had such men as the late Daniel O'Connell, the well known newspaper man and poet, Arthur McEwen, and a number of other celebrities.

When death arrived the doctor left all his possessions to his wife, and that lady cherished his memory up to her dying day.

She not only retained possession of the original home, but kept his drug store in practically the same condition as it was on the day when the doctor's remains were borne to the cemetery.

SHELVES THE SAME.

Today upon the original shelves are found the bottles containing drugs as they were when they were last used by the doctor, with the exception that they are covered with a curtain of white cloth to hide them from the gaze of curious people.

As years advanced the infirmities of age began to afflict Mrs. Lemon, and as a consequence for the past nine years she has been totally blind.

TALENTED WOMAN.

In early life she was a talented and beautiful woman, and while displaying rare strength of character, had a tenderness of heart which caused her to sympathize with the suffering and impelled her to aid them by all the means in her power.

Several acquaintances of hers who were in desolate circumstances were tenderly laid away after death at her expense and in numerous other cases where sickness prevailed she was a liberal giver from her not over well stocked wallet.

LEFT A WILL.

Mrs. Lemon left a will and disposed of her property among relatives who reside in London and in other parts of the continent. One of these relatives is Henry Barrett, a furniture polisher, who is now in London. A nephew of hers, named Arthur Lemon, is a resident of the Latin quarter in Paris.

Mrs. Ware, her devoted attendant, is also a beneficiary under the will. (Continued on Page 2.)

WM. BETTS A BRIDEGROOM AT SEVENTY-EIGHT

BERKELEY, July 27.—William M. Betts, a wealthy resident of Berkeley, 75 years of age, surprised his friends this morning by marrying Mrs. G. Forsythe. She is 47 years of age, just thirty-one years younger than her venerable husband. For some time past she has been housekeeper at his home, 2805 Telegraph Avenue.

The wedding took place shortly before noon today at the home of Percy G. Betts, a son of the aged groom, who resides at 3030 Fremont street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Scudder of the South Berkeley Congregational Church. The witnesses were Mrs. Percy G. Betts and Mrs. C. L. Rogers. At present the bride and groom will reside at the Betts home on Telegraph Avenue, but will soon take an extended wedding trip.

William M. Betts made his money as a manufacturer of wagon springs and hardware in San Francisco. He has not been in the business for a number of years. His first wife died about a year ago.

Last evening J. H. McDonald, a son-in-law, filed a petition in court asking that Mr. Betts be declared incompetent. In the meantime the old man married. The petition is pending in court. Mrs. Betts No. 1 died April 3 last.

TEACHERS ANNUITY FUND LOOKING BETTER

May be Able to Draw a Salary in Their Old Age When They Cannot Work.

Notwithstanding the desertions from the ranks of school teachers who inaugurated the Alameda County Teachers' Annuity and Retirement Fund, there is still left a nucleus of those who believe that subscribing to such a fund promises to them an income in the day of their old age, and the annual account of the finances of the fund was prepared today by Superintendent T. O. Crawford to be filed with the Board of Supervisors, which makes a creditable showing, and is now on a basis where it is believed it can be worked up into a sound financial institution.

LARGE DESERTION.
Two years ago there was a large desertion of teachers owing to the fact that there was no way in which to make it compulsory for all Alameda county teachers to take out membership. A similar institution in San Francisco, where the city and county governments are joined, makes it possible to make such a regulation, and a fear that without the support of all the teachers such a plan could not be carried out to a successful conclusion spreading among the teachers, caused a stampede of eighty-three teachers, who withdrew, and with them some $5081 of the funds of the institution.

It is contended, however, by the friends of the scheme that these teachers did not look forward to the time when Oakland is bound to have a city and county government of its own, and that although consolidation with Alameda and Berkeley looks somewhat remote, that the movement of the times will surely bring such a union about, when it is more than probable that just such a regulation will be passed, and that once now paying will receive their reward.

THE REPORT.
According to the statement of Superintendent T. O. Crawford, the members are now seemingly contented and the funds of the concern are increasing. The report shows the following financial status of the fund:

Total subscriptions	$12,849.50
Interest on deposits	$45.76
Total	$12,895.26
Paid out on withdrawals	$5,081.00
Clerk's salary	170.00
Expenses, books, etc.	29.80
Fixed out to C. Powell, Jr.	59.51
To M. A. Thurston, same	64.17
To F. C. Sutherland, same	60.50
Total	$5,325.14
Total amount on hand	$7,570.12
	$ 5,406.11

The original number of subscribers was 228, and the withdrawal of eighty-three, since the institution of the fund in 1897, there have been lapses caused by deaths, removals and desertions. The fund is eligible to the highest pension after thirty years of teaching, but if they are forced to retire before that time they get a reduced pension.

From New York for California. The Company will also put on two regular steamers direct between Honolulu and San Francisco. On the Atlantic side, a weekly service is to be established between Coatzacoalcas and New York, and also a direct service between Coatzacoalcas and New Orleans. The Atlantic Gulf line will be of vessels of 8,500 tons carrying capacity.

KEY TO THE NEW TRADE.

The key which has unlocked this new trade route between Hawaii and the Eastern United States is nearing completion of the Tehuantepec National Railroad. This long-delayed highway promises to be ready for business before the close of 1905. The cause of delay has not been any great difficulty in railroad construction across the rather broad isthmus of Mexico, but the lack of improved harbors and of modern equipment for handling freight at the Atlantic and Pacific terminals. This lack the Mexican Government has been foresighted enough to remove. While the railroad has been expending about $10,000,000 on the 190 miles of line, the National Government has expended $40,000,000 for the harbor of Salina Cruz and another large sum for the port of Coatzacoalcas.

The Tehuantepec Railroad, which is being built by London capital, is looked upon in England as a possible close rival of the Panama canal for much of the traffic which it has been assumed would inevitably go to the latter. It is pointed out that the Mexican road is 1300 miles north of Panama and only 800 miles south of New Orleans. It is being laid with the heaviest rails and will have the finest American rolling stock and equipment. Sir John Lubbock, a distinguished leading promoter, claims that it will be "one of the greatest routes of the world."

PLANS OF THE NEW ROUTE.

He says: "It will divert traffic that now goes around Cape Horn and by the Suez canal. It will compete, too, with the American trans-Pacific railroads, for we shall be able to convey goods from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast of the United States in twenty days, which is less time than is occupied by the express freight trains of some of the railroads. It does not think that the Panama canal will greatly injure the road.

In already securing the vast bulk of the sugar trade from Hawaii, the Mexican road has at least practically demonstrated that it is a factor which must be reckoned with in the immediate future in the transcontinental trade of the United States.

HONOLULU, July 19.—The Colonial Sugar Company's works on Harwood island have begun reducing this season's crop. There are 30,000 tons of cane to be ground, which will keep the mills busy for twenty-seven weeks. This is the largest crop and the longest season in twenty-five years.

JAPANESE VICTORY

Dislodge Russians; Capture Many Prisoners and Stores.

TOKIO, July 27, 5 p. m.—It is officially reported that a Japanese detachment was protecting the landing of troops on Sakhalin Island, dislodged the enemy from Alkova and vicinity, occupied the first line of defenses at Polovin and then the second line at Alkova.

The Russian strength consisted of one battalion of infantry, recently dispatched to the scene, besides several hundred volunteers, eight field pieces from Alexandrovsk placed on the hills in the direction of Lutsk.

Before this one detachment of Japanese infantry dispatched under the protection of torpedo boats toward the pier at Alexandrovsk dispersed a body of Russians attempting to burn the pier, which was captured intact.

A detachment, helped by a torpedo boat landed at Mugati, dislodged the Russians and captured 40,000 tons of coal and other materials. Another detachment occupied the third line of defenses at Alkova on the same afternoon. Continuing the advance Alexandrovsk was taken and entered on the same evening, after some resistance.

The Russians continued their resistance at the redoubts east of town and on an eminence to the northeast. Stubborn resistance was offered and the fighting did not cease from sundown to dawn, the Russians holding their position east of Alexandrovsk.

The Japanese then attacked, pursuing the Russian toward Novomichaelakso and completely occupying that place. Alexandrovsk escaped being destroyed by a conflagration.

Two hundred prisoners were taken. Gun carriages, ammunition and provisions were also captured.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 27.—Gen. Linvitch confirms the report that Japanese destroyers landed a battalion of infantry at Castler July 24, occupied the lighthouse and hoisted the Japanese flag.

M. WITTE ON OCEAN

Russian Official and Party
Sail for New York.

CHERBOURG, July 27.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, with M. Witte and his party on board, sailed for New York from here today at 1:30 p. m.

Although it was announced that the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse left the Needles at 5:50 this morning, her departure was delayed owing to the denseness of the fog. M. Witte, the chief Russian peace plenipotentiary, who is a passenger on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, appeared somewhat annoyed at the delay, the Russian peace party being already late when compared with the Japanese.

The Russians were most interested in reading the press dispatches describing the arrival in New York of Baron Komura and his party, and expressed the hope that the Japanese conditions would really be as moderate as set forth in the dispatches received here.

Owing to lack of accommodation at the hotels, some of the passengers of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse were compelled to spend the night on board the North German Lloyd Steamship Company's tugs, in sleeping cars at the railway station and even on the pier.

CHINESE A BURGLAR?

Toy Sue Tuen Wants
Police to Recover
Stolen Gold.

Toy Sue Tuen, a Chinese, who conducts a laundry at 609 East Twelfth street, reported to the police today that his establishment had been entered last night and robbed of $50.

The burglary occurred sometime between 1 and 8 o'clock this morning. Detectives Quigley and Lynch were detailed on the case and report that if robbery was committed it must have been from the inside.

The window through which the supposed burglar was said to have entered shows no sign of having been disturbed. This leads the police to the belief that the crime was perpetrated by some one with access to the premises.

On the statements of the money consisting of several gold pieces was left on an ironing table.

It was there when the proprietor went to bed last night but had disappeared when the place was opened for business this morning.

MAYOR OF ALAMEDA LOSES HIS DOG

ALAMEDA, July 27.—A still alarm was turned in for a small blaze which occurred in the shed of George Martin at 1413 Park street and was responded to by the Sherman street chemical, No. 3. The fire communicated from the shed to the bowling alley of Harmony Hall, which was adjoining, but the firemen extinguished the blaze with only a loss of about $25. The fire was caused by an electric transformer, which burned out.

During the excitement of the fire a pet Chinese dog named "Kim," and belonging to W. J. Gorman, Mayor of Alameda, was kicked by one of the horses and instantly killed.

BIG TOWER BEING CONSTRUCTED

WILL BE USED IN A WIRELESS
TELEGRAPHY SYS-TEM.

Down at Adams' Wharf there is being constructed a three-hundred foot double tower for the uses of the Pacific Wireless Telegraph Company. George Ross is in charge of the work. He is an engineer of much experience and scientific to a degree.

For the purposes of wireless telegraphy this tower is being constructed on new lines. Its main posts are of solid timber, twelve inches in size, of Oregon fir, tapering to the 100-foot mark. Then from the 100-foot mark to the top—200 feet above—the twin towers taper to a circumscribed dimension of less than two feet.

It would be thought that such a tower would be liable to be overcombed by the elements, especially the fierce winds which blow from the stormy Pacific. To guard against any danger of this nature the tower will be supported by guides every thirty feet.

The base of the tower, or really it is a double tower, is in form a quadruple equal triangle. Its method is to prevent resistance from the wind, no surface being exposed. The resistance will be less than one-third.

In the construction of this double tower there is being utilized about two tons of copper wire, strung from a heavy shive, braced with girts and braces from six to twenty feet apart. Tyrods to each brace are from 1/2 to 1 1/2 set up on corner washers, with all girts bolted with inch iron on very heavy washers.

There will be forty thousand feet of timber in the tower. It will represent a weight of sixty tons. When completed on Adams' Wharf it will be taken apart, transported to Mt. Tamalpais and there erected on the extreme summit.

The intention is to erect a similar tower on a headland at Honolulu, and transmit messages between the two towers.

The tower on Tamalpais will be more than 2,000 feet above sea level. That at Honolulu will be equally as high. Therefore it is anticipated that the difficulties arising from the curvature of the earth in connection with wireless telegraphy, will be, in a measure overcome.

The twin towers now being put up at Adams' wharf are to be one hundred feet apart, and each will weigh fifty-two tons.

They will face each other, and each will have 17,000 feet of lumber in its makeup.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

POLICE WILL TRY TO AGAIN
SEND THIS MAN TO PRISON.

Frank Smith, one of three tramps arrested for stealing chickens from E. W. Laprotti, 4900 Broadway street, was formally charged with burglary before Police Judge Samuels this morning.

The police say that Smith has served one term in State's Prison and hope to send him to the Penitentiary for a second term.

No charge has been placed against Bob Russell and Hugh Holland, the two partners of Smith.

The three men were camped in a thick undergrowth a few hundred feet from the residence of Laprotti and made a raid on the latter's chicken house for the purpose of getting a meal.

All the men concerned have police records.

REPORT DENIED.

BERLIN, July 27.—The German Foreign Office denies utterly the report published by the correspondent of a London paper at Stockholm to the effect that Emperor William in his recent interview with the Russian Emperor sought to obtain the consent of the latter for a prince of the House of Hohenzollern to ascend the throne of Norway.

JAPANESE ADVANCE.

KUAN-SCHANGTSU, Manchuria, July 27.—According to reports from Corea the Japanese continue advancing along a forty-mile front, their vanguard is now about thirty miles from the mouth of the Yumen River. The Koreans estimate the strength of the Japanese at about 40,000 men. Their main force is concentrated at Kanchen.

According to his schedule of pay, Admiral Togo received less than $10 for destroying the Russian fleet. But he probably would have done it for $5. Nashville American.

MRS. HAYES-CHYNOWETH DIED AT SAN JOSE THIS MORNING.

SAN JOSE, July 27.—Mrs. Hayes-Chynoweth, mother of Congressman E. A. Hayes and J. O. Hayes, proprietors of the Mercury and Herald of this city, died at 10 o'clock this morning. She had been ill for three months.

She was the daughter of Rev. Abraham and Miriam Folsom, and was born in Holland, N. Y., October 2, 1825. At the age of twenty-eight she married A. E. Hayes, a cousin of President Hayes, and several years after his death she became the wife of T. B. Chynoweth of this city, who died a year later.

She owned a magnificent estate at Edenvalle, near this city. Her life was devoted to spiritual teaching and healing. She was the founder of the True Life Church, of which she was chosen pastor for life.

COLONEL CRANE IS VICE-PRESIDENT

The representatives of the counties and districts to the Lewis and Clark Exposition have perfected an organization known as the California Representative Association.

The object of this organization is to further the development of the State of California and its various counties. At an election held at the hotel J. H. Willis of Auburn was made president; Colonel L. P. Crane of Oakland vice-president, and George P. Dennis of Ventura secretary and treasurer.

The following were admitted to membership: C. W. Merritt, Santa Barbara; R. J. Trebach, Antioch; Mrs. S. L. Wiley, Fresno; Robert Gray, Ontario; O. L. Moorman, Riverside; C. E. Wilson, Los Angeles; H. Hayden, Sacramento; Miss Bertha Groh, Sacramento; W. D. Nichols of Sacramento.

SERVICES REWARDED.

SAN MATEO, July 27.—As a reward for long and faithful service Dennis Heardon of this city has been presented with a handsome home and commodious grounds by Mrs. Rose, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alvina Hayward. So well did he perform his service that the heiress to the Hayward millions has provided him against want in his declining years. The property is valued at several thousand dollars.

BENNINGTON DISASTER IS CHINESE BEING PROBED EXCLUSION

Board of Investigation Making a Thorough Inquiry at Mare Island Today.

SAN DIEGO, July 27.—The flagship Chicago of the Pacific squadron, with Admiral Goodrich aboard, arrived here at 5 o'clock this morning, having left San Francisco at 5 p. m. Tuesday.

Soon after the Chicago came to anchor, Commander Young of the Bennington and Captain Drake of Mare Island, went aboard and were closeted with the Admiral.

A board of investigation was appointed whose duties will be to collect evidence of whatever nature may be considered pertinent to the disaster on the gunboat Bennington and to put this evidence in shape for the consideration of Admiral Goodrich. With the report of this board in hand, the Admiral will decide whether or not to appoint a board of inquiry.

At 10 o'clock this morning, this board of investigation, consisting of Lieutenant Commander F. W. Bartlett, Lieutenant Commander Halstead and Lieutenant Moody, convened on board the flagship and after consultation with the Admiral, adjourned to the Bennington. The report of the board is not expected to be made for several days.

In the meantime, the work of cleaning up the gunboat proceeds slowly, the boilers being left in the position in which they were found after the explosion until inspected by the investigating board. Divers have plugged the intake pipes from the outside, thus stopping all entrance of water. So far, it is reported, the divers have found nothing wrong outside the hull under the water line.

Scalings from the boilers will be examined by the navy yard chemist. It is understood, to determine if gases created by corrosion and chemical action caused the explosion.

There have been no deaths, since those reported last night, though the condition of P. Nieman, H. A. Worthen and L. A. Griese is precarious. W. Holly and E. Schultz are improving, while Hallett, Sullivan, Bushnell and Miller show no change for better or worse.

The time for the funeral of Ensign N. K. Perry has been changed to tomorrow at 10 a. m. Bishop J. H. Johnson of Los Angeles will be present and assist in the services.

New Treaty With United States Might Not Be Accepted.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Some doubt is expressed in official circles whether it will be possible to obtain Chinese consent to another treaty with the United States providing for the exclusion of Chinese laborers from this country.

The State Department is aware of ill feeling throughout China on the whole subject and now that the immigration treaty with China has been allowed to lapse, without the negotiation of a new agreement reports have reached here that China is inclined hereafter to refuse to sign any similar convention.

China's position appears to be that the exclusion of Chinese citizens from a friendly country is in itself a disgrace, and while she cannot ignore the laws of a foreign power providing for such exclusion, she can refuse to sanction it or become part of it by concluding a treaty involving such restrictions.

A year ago it is said that it would have been easy to conduct negotiations with China for the exclusion of Chinese laborers only.

Now, however, it is understood the Chinese officials are disposed to regard the signing of such a treaty beneath the dignity of their government.

The reason for the assumption at Peking of this new attitude is not quite clear to the officials here, though in some circles it is attributed to the influence of foreign powers.

SPECIAL REPORT S. P. TRACKS ARE MENACED RECTOR MACON RETURNS

BOTH HOUSES OF SWEDISH PARLIAMENT ARE UNITED.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, July 27.—Both houses of the Swedish Parliament today approved of the special committee appointed by Parliament to deal with the crisis between Sweden and Norway. In the first Chamber the report was adopted without debate.

The second chamber the recommendation in the report granting negotiations for a dissolution was also passed unanimously, but there was some objection to the proposed loan of $25,000,000 to meet the new conditions. About a score of members voted against the loan, the social democratic leader Harry Branting, pointing out the danger of militarism, and declaring that the proposed loan was contrary to the present spirit of the recommendation to negotiate. It was a dangerous precedent, he said, for Sweden never heretofore had borrowed money for military purposes, and he feared Norway would regard it as being in the nature of a threat of war. This view was contested by other speakers, who pointed out that the Riksdag by its unanimous approval of the conditions of dissolution, had voiced its willingness to dissolve the union and its desire for peace, both in the present and in the future.

CORRECTION MADE.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—In the revised cotton report issued yesterday by the Department of Agriculture an error was committed in the second paragraph, which made it appear that the June estimate by Mr. Hyde was made "lower" than the facts at hand warranted, when, in fact, it was made "higher." The erroneous statement has been corrected by the department.

CONDITION SERIOUS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 27.—Bishop I. W. Joyce of the Methodist Episcopal Church is very low this morning. Temperature 104.

FLOODS ARE CAUSING DAMAGE AT THE SALTON SINK.

LOS ANGELES, July 27.—Water is playing havoc at Salton sink, and the statement of the increasing seriousness of the situation made several days ago is being borne out. For the first time yesterday it was admitted that conditions are serious. The Southern Pacific headquarters, was advised that passenger trains had to be held up nearly an hour this morning as the result of a new rush of water that first made itself felt late yesterday afternoon. The flood was entirely unexpected, and the waves for a time were high, presenting a spectacle that is said to have been remarkable. Such a scene has never before been witnessed anywhere inland.

The Southern Pacific Company's tracks and roadbed were submerged, resulting in an emergency call on Los Angeles for assistance. Order was generally restored today, although, it is said, it will require the hardest kind of work to save the hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property that is in danger.

James Randolph, president and general manager of the California Development Company; R. H. Ingram, district superintendent, and H. V. Platt, division superintendent of the Southern Pacific, accompanied by minor officials of the two corporations, have returned to the Imperial section, having left Los Angeles last night by special train. They were summoned to meet the extraordinary emergency. Hundreds of men are being rushed to the scene, and a shooting twelve miles long has been decided on as a means for heading off the rush of waters that are a danger to the railway company's tracks.

By the construction of a jetty 3,000 feet long, extending into the Colorado river at a point a mile above the intake of the Colorado Development Company's irrigation canal, Southern Pacific engineers will attempt to divert the flow of the river to the east side of the channel away from the canal intake on the west side. This will be about a mile above the intake.

SAN BERNARDINO, July 27.—Reports to this city confirm the reports of the serious difficulties under which the Southern Pacific Company is laboring in the Salton sea situation. Telegraph poles along three miles of track are beginning to sag and a special lot of men was sent out today to brace them up. Indians from Yuma, A. T., have been secured to work in the water. The sag continues to rise. Stone from quarries near this city is being shipped to the scene, to be used by the Southern Pacific Company in building dykes against the flood.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Togoro Takahira, the Japanese minister and peace plenipotentiary, and his colleague, Baron Komura, left here this forenoon for Oyster Bay to pay an informal visit to the President. They are expected to return this evening.

CHAIR OF FORESTRY.

CHICAGO, July 27.—First steps toward the raising of $150,000 to be used in the endowment of a chair of applied forestry at Yale University have been taken at a meeting of the executive committee of the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association.

The committee has in charge the raising of the necessary funds for the endowment of the chair and the appointment of a special committee of three practical lumbermen to co-operate with the Yale forest school faculty with a view of directing the course of study along practical lines and also the work of securing a committee of 100 lumbermen who will have charge of the work in the various lumbering districts.

The support of the United States government will also be solicited, and Clifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry bureau, will be made an honorary member of the executive committee.

TELLS OF HIS PLEASANT TRIP IN HISTORIC SOUTH.

Rev. Clifton Macdon, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church on Telegraph avenue, and wife returned from a trip in the East, after a visit of two months. While away he visited Pittsburg, Washington and the historic places of Virginia, and other places.

Speaking of his trip, Rev. Macdon said: "The principal thing that struck me was the new spirit in the South, among both the people and the officials. In both respects it is encouraging for the future. It showed itself both in the agricultural and commercial districts. In both respects the South is in a far better condition than it has been since the Civil war. In Virginia, particularly, agricultural values have increased from 30 to 50 per cent in the past twenty years."

As to my visit, I was entertained in a house in which Presidents Monroe, Jefferson and Madison had stopped on the road to the National capital. I also visited the homes and tombs of Madison and Jefferson.

On Sunday next I officiate at all the services in the church.

WORK FOR BETTER SERVICE

BOARD OF TRADE WILL TAKE UP COMPLAINT OF EX-PRESSMEN.

A joint meeting of the Railroad Committee of the Alameda County Expressmen's Association and a special committee appointed by the Merchants' Exchange, will be held in the rooms of the Oakland Board of Trade, 510 Twelfth street, Friday morning, July 28, at 9 a. m.

This meeting has been called for the purpose of considering the matter of better transportation facilities of the Oakland Harbor route.

The Expressmen's Association asserts that at the present time they cannot take contracts to deliver merchandise to the merchants of Oakland at any specific time owing to the fact that frequently several of the teams cannot get on the boat. The merchants of Oakland in many instances complain that they are at a loss owing to the delay in the delivery of goods.

The Expressmen's Association of Alameda county asked the aid of the Board of Trade and Merchants' Exchange as the representatives of the business and professional men of Oakland in securing better service on the Oakland Harbor route.

LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION.

DENVER, July 27.—Mr. J. H. Gwinn, secretary of the National Livestock Association, says the most encouraging returns are being made on the reciprocity conference to be held in Chicago on August 16th and 17th. He has also received word from Mr. Alvin H. Saunders, chairman of the reciprocity committee that fully six thousand responses have been received in Chicago from the various prominent trade organizations and individuals who intend to be present.

Chairman Saunders who introduced at the last session of the National Livestock Association a resolution looking toward a reciprocity conference and the executive committee are already to be congratulated upon the "hopeful outlook," said Mr. Gwinn, "and those who have put their shoulders to the wheel will not relax their well directed efforts. Surely agricultural America will awaken to the fact that a serious menace to our prosperity impends in the shape of the new European policy, and an appeal is made to all who have the interests of our producing class at heart to co-operate in making the Chicago conference the starter of an agitation which will be heard in the District of Columbia."

"Notice has been served upon us by the German Government that in March next the leading products of American farms will be subjected to such excessive duties as to practically prohibit our competitive trade in that country. In 1904 we sold Germany our products to the extent of $215,000,000 in value, and got from her $100,000,000 of her products."

"That trade was secured under the commercial agreement of July 18, 1900, authorized by the Dingley bill which opened the German market for American goods. Such a market is surely worth keeping and I should like to see it expanded."

Attacked by a Mob
and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied E. J. Allen's Great Salve and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect. Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at Gessner's drug stores, Twelfth and Washington, Seventh and Broadway."

WHAT JAPANESE WILL DEMAND OF CZAR

Vladivostok Will Probably be the Stumbling Block to Peace Terms.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—As a clearer idea is gained of Japan's peace terms, the character of which was outlined in the Associated Press last night the skepticism with which received the European reports that Japan would demand the neutralization of Vladivostok is lessened. In fact, it is learned that not only is this likely to constitute one of Japan's demands, but it will be accompanied by a startling proposal. In fact, according to newspaper informed sources, Japan's ultimatum will be as great as at first glance appears, as the fortification of the Straits of Korea would offset the loss of the strategic point. It is believed that Vladivostok will be one of the greatest difficulties the ultimatum will face.

In this connection an interesting story is current regarding the selection of Baron Komura as envoy. According to this story Japan had hardly less trouble than Russia in finding an official capable of handling the delicate mission. Baron Komura was finally selected an will propose in return of the neutralization of this last Russian fortress on the Pacific not to fortify Port Arthur. Should this information prove correct it will conflict with the view generally held in official circles that the neutralization of Vladivostok could not be made part of the settlement.

The abandonment of this fortress is such a concession that it is not felt that Russia could afford to receive it.

To accept it with the stipulation that before the conference assembled the following things should be done:

First, The location of a new loan, in order that Japan should be forced to continue the war in the event that the effort for peace failed.

Second—The occupation of the Island of Sakhalin.

Third—The advance against Vladivostok, and last, that Oyama should march toward the Russian army in Manchuria.

sion will then be made to the members of the other.

After the reception and exchanging greetings the President will entertain them at luncheon on the Mayflower.

NEW RITUAL OF Y. M. I.

THOUSAND MEMBERS OF ORDER WILL WITNESS FIRST SHOW-ING HERE OF LATEST WORK.

Next Sunday there will be a gathering here of about a thousand members of the Young Men's Institute, who will come from all the surrounding cities, the occasion being the exemplification, for the first time in this city, of the new ritual of the order, which has been in course of preparation for several years.

MANY TRIALS.
One ritual was offered by C. M. Waage of the Monitor. Another was prepared by Rev. J. Abman of Carrollton, Ky. Friends of both authors worked for recognition of their respective rituals, with the result that a committee was finally appointed to submit the draft of a ritual which should comprise the best features of both the others.

SUCCESS ACHIEVED.
After waiting for many months the composite ritual, upon which a number of the brainy men of the order had worked, has made its appearance, and is said to give satisfaction. It is elevating in conception, dignified in diction and dramatic in action. It creates four degrees and introduces characters and cos-

OYSTER BAY, July 27.—President Roosevelt will formerly receive the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries on board the Mayflower on Saturday, August 5th, at 1:30 p. m. The Mayflower will be anchored at the entrance to Oyster Bay. The vessel's draught is so great that it cannot enter the bay itself.

The peace envoys of the two nations will arrive off the Bay from New York in two cruisers which are now being prepared for the special service to which they have been detailed. They are expected to arrive here from New York about noon on the day of the reception. The Russian plenipotentiaries and their suite on one vessel, and the Japanese envoys and their suite on the other.

President Roosevelt will go aboard the Mayflower soon after the arrival of the cruisers bearing the plenipotentiaries at the hour set for the reception. The president will then

The fact that the first three stipulations have been ratified while advisors from the front indicate the imminence of a general agreement would indicate that the story is well founded.

After the reception and exchanging greetings, the President will entertain the Russian envoys at the White House. Later in the day, after the President and Secretary Root shall have left the Mayflower and returned to Sagamore, the Russian envoys will depart for Portsmouth, N. H. The trip is to be made by them in the Mayflower and the Dolphin, the Russian envoys on one vessel will be conveyed to Portsmouth by one and the other by the other, while they bring the envoys from New York to Oyster Bay.

CORRUPTION IN BUSINESS LIFE

CARDINAL GIBBONS TALKS ABOUT THE MONEY MAKERS.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Cardinal Gibbons, who is spending the summer at Southampton, L. I., gave an interview yesterday on the subject of corruption in business and public life, which, he declares, must be cured by publicity through the press.

"Corruption is a fixed evil that we must reckon with just as long as the present condition of society exists in this country," said the Cardinal. "Whenever there is an amalgamation of great capital, or a large collection of men interested in one money-making concern, there is sure to be corruption. It is not a new story. It is a story as old as the world's history. The only reason that it comes so much to the fore at present is that the methods of its detection are, daily growing stronger. Corruption has always existed, and I am much afraid, will exist as long as human nature yields to the attributes that lead to temptation.

"The bright spot in the fact that the degradation is made known. Corruption cannot exist nowadays without being discovered after a while. The greater the evil the greater the possibility of remedy. And that possibility of remedy becomes such an assured fact that it counterbalances, almost, the evil which the present condition of money-making necessarily creates.

"The fear, the dread of exposure is the counterbalancing element, and that fear, that dread, that horror of having a name once respected dragged down is due to the efforts of the metropolitan press.

"It may not be good theology, it may not be good ethics, but it is certainly very good common sense, and a very good moral element that the fear, the dread of exposure in the public press keeps many a man sticking close to the path of rectitude who otherwise would stray off into the byways of personal gratuity.

"There is nothing," the Cardinal continued, "which a man prizes more than his reputation, and the only way to effectually upset a man's reputation is to expose him in the public press. The power of the press is incalculable. Sometimes it happens that the defect is shown in an exaggerated form, but as a rule the public exposures of public men are public benefactions.

"The shattering of idols, popular idols, has of late become a thing of almost daily occurrence. It is a sad thing to contemplate, but it is an inevitable condition.

"The great trouble-maker in this country is money. Americans are not misers, thank God. Otherwise we would be in a most deplorable condition. When great fortunes are made they are almost as rapidly expended, and the constant circulation of money, the keeping going of these great accumulations of wealth, is one of the hopeful signs of the future.

"In the United States it is not the love of money itself that is the root of all evil. The fact of possessing money and having the opportunity to spend it brings with it untold inclinations toward vice and immoral and unlawful extravagance."

EAGLES ELECT NEW OFFICERS

NAPA, July 27.—The Grand Aerie of Eagles resumed its session at the Opera House in Napa yesterday with a large attendance of delegates. State President C. P. Reardon of Stockton was in the chair, and much business of importance was transacted. The committee on new laws, of which Theodore A. Bell is chairman, presented a partial report and was continued in power to present a final report at the convention next year. The election of officers was then in order, and the following were chosen to serve for a term of one year: President, C. P. Reardon, Stockton; Vice-President, Jerome Bassett of San Francisco; Secretary, Gustave Pohlman of San Francisco; Treasurer, B. B. Goodell of San Francisco; Auditor, J. M. Wilson of San Francisco; Editor, J. M. Wilson of San Francisco; Correspondent, Lee Griggs of Napa Aerie, No. 161; Inside Sentinel, Jerry Lucy of San Francisco Aerie, No. 5; Outside Sentinel, William Connor of San Rafael Aerie, No. 256.

MENTAL ACCURACY

Greatly Improved by Leaving off Coffee.

The manager of an extensive creamery in Wisconsin states that, while a regular coffee drinker, he found it injurious to his health and a hindrance to the performance of his business duties.

"I cannot say," he continues, "that I ever used coffee to excess, but I know that it did me harm, especially during the past few years.

"It impaired my digestion, gave me a general sense of uneasiness in the region of the stomach, causing a most painful and disquieting palpitation of the heart, and what is worse, it muddled my mental faculties so as to seriously injure my business efficiency. I concluded, about 3 months ago, that something would have to be done. I quit the use of the old kind of coffee, short off, and began to drink Postum Food Coffee. The 'cook' didn't make it right at first, but didn't hold it long enough, and I did not find it palatable and quit using it, and went back to the old kind of coffee and to the stomach trouble again. Then my wife took the matter in hand, and by following the directions on the box, faithfully, she had me drinking Postum for several days before I knew it. When I happened to remark that I was feeling much better than I had for a long time, she told me that I had been drinking Postum, and that accounted for it. Now we have no other kind of coffee on our table."

"My digestion has been perfectly restored, and with this improvement has come relief from the oppressive sense of fullness and palpitation of the heart that used to bother me so, and I note such a gain in mental strength and acuteness that I can attend to my office work with ease and pleasure and without making the mistakes that were so annoying to me while I was using the old kind of coffee."

"Postum Food Coffee is the greatest table drink of the times, in my humble estimation. Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Michigan, without any loss on the part of the Japanese forces."

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

W. E. DARGIE, President

Business Office and Publishing House, 413-417 Eighth Street, Oakland.

A Literary Masquerader

It is evident that some white man is writing the English editorials in the Chinese Free Press of San Francisco. They bear internal evidence of being the work of some American writer who is more desirous of whacking the administration than he is of righting the alleged wrongs the Chinese in this country complain of. The idioms, mental processes and manner of statement all prove this. The standpoint also is purely American. China is viewed objectively, and the Chinese appear entirely dissociated from the writer. All this would be different if the writer were a Chinese dealing with the exclusion act and the boycott on American goods from a Chinese standpoint. Note this paragraph from a recent editorial, for instance:

"The President discounts the integrity of the Consuls of his own appointment, and declares that every subordinate official may dispute the genuineness of every certificate such Consuls may have endorsed. The grafters in the United States service are quick to take advantage of this Presidential blunder, and the old wrongs, extortions, and insults are perpetuated. When Mr. Roosevelt's attention was lately called to this error of judgment by Mr. Samuel Gompers, chief officer of labor organizations, he coolly dismissed the matter by announcing that he would let it run for six months to see how it would work—showing a woeful lack of confidence in his own statesmanship. The obstacles still exist to a faithful and true administration of the exclusion law as applied to the exempt class. The Chinese merchants see in the President's double-meaning promises only a ceaseless repetition of the indignities heretofore heaped upon them; and having learned also that the threat of declining further trade with America has at last called attention to these outrages, they purpose to prosecute the boycott until just and equitable relief shall be obtained. They have the right to expect and exact gentlemanly treatment from gentlemen, and if this is not accorded them they must perform decline further intercourse."

This is not the language or the thought of any Chinaman. It was written by a white man for American readers. It is not unlikely that it is the work of some man who is hammering the President in some other publication for being too friendly to the Chinese. Observe that a wholesale attack is made on Federal officials for grafting, and that the President is accused of knowingly protecting grafters in office. Secretary Bonaparte is quoted in an irrelevant manner to give a color to the grafting charge, and a fling is taken at Secretary McCall.

We have been giving the English editorials in the Free Press considerable attention, and have become thoroughly convinced that they are not an expression of Chinese opinion or are to be regarded as in any way indicative of Chinese sentiment. Their intent, however, is evident. The object is to break down the exclusion laws, an object in which certain interests in this country are far more concerned than the Chinese. If the pigtail were stripped off this bogus Chinaman he would probably be revealed as a well-known literary emissary of the interests in question.

The Balfour ministry is discredited in the House of Commons, but it appears that there is no cohesion among the opposition. The government will not appeal to the country unless ousted by a direct vote of no confidence, and this the various elements, which is one feature of the ministerial policy, cannot be got together to give. Many members of the present Parliament heartily disapprove of Balfour's methods and his tentative policies, but they are still more afraid of a radical Liberal administration; and, unless all signs are at fault, a dissolution at this time would mean the return of a decisive Liberal majority. The Liberals are by no means united, and a Liberal government could not exist without the goodwill and co-operation of the Irish Nationalists. While the Liberals and Nationalists have been drawn together more closely than they have been since Gladstone's retirement, the defeat of the bill giving increased representation to Scotland and Wales at the expense of Ireland is likely to cause friction. Scotland and Wales are Liberal strongholds, and hence the Tory-Unionists may be able to make political capital out of the recent vote in Parliament.

"Men who refuse to become rich show sound judgment," says Rev. Newton Dwight Hillis. The doctor evidently believes in the wisdom of the great majority. He is safe in running for office on that platform.

The Duty of the Council.

Tonight the Park and Boulevard Committee of the Council will consider the proposed ordinance appropriating $50,000 for dredging Lake Merritt that the marsh below the Twelfth street dam may be filled and reclaimed for park purposes.

It is to be hoped that the committee will report the measure favorably, so that the Council can act promptly and work be commenced at an early date. In this case procrastination is likely to prove fatal to the project. As Horace Greeley said about the resumption of specie payment, the way to improve is to improve. The way to begin is to begin. The time to begin is now. Excuses can always be found for delay, but delays have thus far proved the death of every municipal enterprise undertaken.

The present condition of the marsh is not only an eye-sore to the city, but it is a standing indictment of the good faith of the municipality. Some years ago a number of citizens raised $5,000 by subscription with which the marsh was purchased and presented to the city on the express condition that it be improved for a public park. The city has never fulfilled its part of the contract, but lets the property thus remain an unsanitary public nuisance. It is beyond the power of private enterprise to reclaim the marsh, hence it is up to the city to do it, both as a measure of public improvement sadly needed and universally desired and as a redemption of a solemn pledge.

The property is a valuable one, and its improvement will stimulate and promote other public and private improvements in the vicinity of the lake. Contingent upon it of course is the dredging of the lake, which is also necessary from a sanitary and public adornment point of view. Thus in redeeming the good faith of the city, a double improvement of the first magnitude will be inaugurated. The most unsightly spot in Oakland will be reclaimed and transformed into a place of beauty.

The city can spare the money out of the revenues for this year. A careful examination of the fiscal resources of the municipality and the probable demands upon them proves this beyond peradventure. The increased revenue from property tax and licenses alone will more than furnish the $50,000, and this year the city will be called on to meet certain extraordinary expenses made necessary last year by the regular municipal election, the two bond elections and the erection of a new engine house at a cost of $12,000. These extraordinary expenses aggregated more than $40,000. It is idle, therefore, to contend that the city cannot spare $50,000 at this time for dredging Lake Merritt and reclaiming the marsh below the lake. The money cannot be spared, however, if the project is delayed till the surplus revenue is frittered away on other small enterprises of more or less doubtful utility.

Let the Council go boldly forward with this scheme of public improvement, and it will have the sympathetic backing of the entire city. The ordinance should be promptly passed that work may be inaugurated without a day's unnecessary delay.

A Barren Suggestion

Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman desires to revolutionize domestic economy so far as it relates to the care of babies and the rearing and education of children. "For the sake of future generations," she exclaims, "remove the baby from the charge of its inexperienced amateur mother. * * * It is a gigantic popular-myth that the home is the place for children. We do not even make a place for children in the home."

Mrs. Gilman has not earned distinction as a mother, although she has changed husbands. Perhaps it is not amiss to remind her that "amateur mothers" have bred the human race thus far, nor has it been demonstrated that non-child-bearing feminine agitators are the persons best qualified to give advice respecting the rearing and education of children. Women of the type of Mrs. Gilman are the greatest protagonists of race suicide. They do not breed themselves and they do all they can to discourage other women from enduring maternity. She wants babies taken from young mothers and reared by somebody else with more "experience." The suggestion is neither practical nor humane. Young mothers are necessarily inexperienced, and doubtless sometimes unwise; but nevertheless they will on the whole give their babies better attention, more loving care than anybody else. Babies will thrive and fare better under their ministrations than under the ministrations of anyone else.

But who is to care for children, rear, educate and surround them with an atmosphere of affection and congenial companionship, if not their parents? Mrs. Gilman's philosophy is not only brutal and unfeeling, but it is destructive of all the sweetness of domestic life. If generally practiced it would destroy the human race as surely as blight kills potatoes. The world cannot put its babies out to farm.

On July 21, the Chicago Tribune printed the names of twelve persons, all boys but two, who died on the day previous from injuries received on the Fourth of July. Nine of the deaths were caused by lockjaw superinduced by wounds. The toy pistol had six of the twelve to its credit, and giant crackers three. The Glorious Fourth still makes money for the undertaker.

Senator Platt of New York has reached the conclusion of Solomon that all is vanity and vexation of spirit. But it did not take as many women to enforce that conviction on his mind that it took to convince Solomon.

THE GOOD OLD GARDEN GATE

Very fondly I remember certain nights quite long ago
When I went a-courting Sarah—that's a girl I used to know,
I remember how we lingered when the time had come to part;
How I said I must be going, yet could never make a start.
How her pink wool "fascinator" amply justified its name;
How at last at my entreaty to the garden gate she came.
Then how flew the happy moments as we stood and leaned our weight
With a gentle swinging motion on the good old garden gate.

I remember how the maples threw a kind obscuring shade
When the moon shone all too brightly for an all too timid maid,
I remember what a feeling—what an ecstasy divine—
Thrilled me to the toes and fingers when her soft, warm lips met mine
And our talk was all in whispers, and the Lord knows what—
Utter nonsense, very likely, quite unmitigated rot—
But it sounded very pleasant at the time, at any rate,
When we two young things were swinging on the good old garden gate.

There is little faith in woman—and there's not much more in man;
She was false or I was fickle; I forget how it began.
I suspect some other fellow with her subsequently swung,
But that doesn't hurt my feelings, as it did when I was young.
For I passed her house quite lately and I had to notice that
She was not a dream of beauty and had grown extremely fat.
She was screaming at her children (she is blessed with six or eight)
Who were breaking down the hinges of the good old garden gate.

IN THE NIGHT.

God give me sleep—the night is worn away;

Soon from the east will come relentless day—

Day, that will summon me to strive again

With strong, resourceful, eager, selfish men.

I, with spent nerves and brain long Robbed of rest

Must face the fight they enter on with zest.

Fame, fortune, all is staked. How shall I keep

My foothold? Help me, O thrice-blessed Sleep!

I toss upon my pillow; I arise

To pace the floor and bathe my burning eyes,

To every sound my straining ear is quick;

I hear the hall clock's dull, majestic tick;

I hear the mice that scamper in the wall;

And somewhere water drips—I hear it fall.

A cock crows shrilly, and the clock strikes four.

Day, maddening day, will soon be here once more.

I pause beside my baby boy's white bed,

What happy dreams sweep through that little head!

He plucks the nodding flowers and he sees

Birds on the wing, and hears the drone of bees;

While in my ears still dines the roar of trade—

Gross facts and figures face me, unafraid;

My whirling brain spins on through problems deep.

A TALE OF THE HOHENZOLLERN.

Emperor William of Germany, while reviewing a regiment of guards, addressed a question or made a good-humored remark to one and another of the men in the front rank, as he frequently does on such occasions.

"What is your name?" The question was addressed to a soldier of huge proportions and with a face that spoke of good-humored simplicity and honesty.

"I am called Johann Andree, your majesty," was the answer.

"Andree?" said the emperor. "Then you are the namesake of a very celebrated man. Did you know that?"

"Your majesty means Andree the polar explorer?"

"Of course! How did you come to hear of him?"

"My captain told me that my name was the same as his, your majesty."

"And what else has your captain told you about him?"

"Very little, your majesty. He only said that he wished the other Andree had taken me with him."

"I don't think your captain meant that to be taken quite seriously," laughed the emperor, and, slipping a coin into the

SACRIFICES HIS WHISKERS FOR HIS LADY LOVE FASHIONS FATHER OF 22 CHILDREN JAILED BY WIFE

Mrs. Ward did the courting. She proffered me her hand before I thought of asking for it. I jilted her, but afterward repented, because she was in poor health.

—Nathaniel Gibbs Ingraham's rejoinder to wife's answer in his divorce suit.

WIFE'S STARTLING CHARGES AGAINST MILLIONAIRE HUSBAND

EDINBURGH, July 26.—Documents involving some of the strangest charges ever made in a court of law by wife against husband, alleging the use of fortune telling and the black arts, have been filed in the suit of Nathaniel Gibbs Ingraham, formerly of New York, and a grandson of Justice Ingraham, of that city, against his wife, formerly Edyth Newcomb, also of New York, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Victor Newcomb, wealthy members of society.

Mr. Ingraham invokes the aid of the English courts to compel his wife to carry out their ante-nuptial settlement, under which, he alleges, he is entitled to an income of $1,500 a year. He also alleges that this income should be supplemented by order of the court with an additional $4,000 a year by virtue of a bond granted in his favor.

THE WIFE ALLEGES FRAUD.
To show the bitterness that has been brought about by the estrangement of the couple, married less than two years, it is only necessary to read Mrs. Ingraham's answer to her husband's suit, in which she states that both the ante-nuptial contract and the bond were obtained by fraud, and, in fact, that she was induced to divorce her first husband, Reginald Henshaw Ward, by her present husband through him playing upon her superstitions.

Mrs. Ingraham alleges that after her separation from Ward, Ingraham induced her by various devices, such as fortune-telling, crystal balls, magic mirrors, etc., to institute divorce proceedings against her husband, and that Ingraham also induced Mr. Ward to consent, although there were no charges, it is said, upon which the then Mrs. Ward could base a suit against her husband.

GAVE HER $7,500 A YEAR.
Long before the divorce was granted it was rumored that Mrs. Ward would become Mrs. Ingraham as soon as she was free, and in 1903 the courts gave her her freedom. Her husband, sometimes known as the "Copper King," a man of a wonderful career, from a peddler as a boy in the streets of Boston to a millionaire, a patent of Papal nobility, decorations from a number of rulers, and an acknowledged leader at the present time in England's highest social circles, was generous to the wife who divorced him, and voluntarily settled upon her, without let or hindrance, an income of $7,500 a year for life.

Mrs. Ward was wealthy in her own name, her father at one time being one of the best-known figures in Wall Street, where he had come as a rich man from his home State of Kentucky. She now avers that after her divorce she was taken to a lawyer's office by Ingraham, who seemed to exercise a power over her, and was there induced to sign an ante-nuptial settlement contract without reading the papers or knowing what they contained.

After this contract had been signed they sailed for England and were married in London on September 22, 1903. Mrs. Newcomb, of New York, her mother, and Miss Danforth, of Kentucky, an aunt, being present. After some travel the couple settled in a beautiful place in Scotland. That their married life did not run smoothly is now learned by their friends in society in this country for the first time, and money matters seem to have started the quarrel that finally led them to the courts.

SAYS SHE DID THE WOOING.
Ingraham, instead of retrenching his position under his wife's charges, makes rejoinder—such a rejoinder as would sting and goad almost any woman to desperation. In a word, he alleges that Mrs. Ward proffered to him her hand in marriage before he had asked for it, and that he coldly jilted her, but afterward repented because she was in poor health, and married her to please her.

This answer of Mr. Ingraham is the last document filed in the suit, and Mrs. Ingraham has not had an opportunity to deny the charge that she wooed him. It is believed, however, that she will enter a vigorous denial of her husband's statement.

Fortune has been in its most fickle mood with the beautiful Evelyn Newcomb since she first dazzled New York society upon the occasion of her debut at the beautiful home of her father and mother at No. 587 Fifth Avenue, some ten years ago at one of the most brilliant social events of the city, and romance of the kind not ordinarily found outside of story books has been weaved in the history of her life.

GRANDMOTHER NOTED BEAUTY.

Her grandfather, Herman D. Newcomb, of the bluest blood of Kentucky, and wealth, married Miss Reed, a famous beauty of Louisville, Ky., when his bride was supposed to be on her death bed. H. Victor Newcomb, a son of this romantic match, eventually made his home in New York, and made a great fortune in Wall Street, and his family became prominent in society. It was Mrs. Newcomb, his wife, who first introduced the brilliant Mrs. Potter Palmer to New York society in a memorable entertainment. Business cares have since caused Mr. Newcomb to seek retreat in a sanitarium, and his wife divides her time between this city, where she resides at the Hotel Savoy, and Paris, where she is now.

In 1899 Miss Edyth Newcomb became the bride of Count Reginald Henshaw Ward, a Bostonian by birth and the great-grandson of the Revolutionary soldier, General Artemus Ward, at a brilliant wedding at the home of the bride's parents. The father objected to the match, solely on the ground that his daughter and the man she was to marry were cousins, and for that reason there was no church ceremony. Mr. Newcomb finally consented to be present at the ceremony and give the bride away.

Notwithstanding his good birth Ward began life almost penniless in Boston. With the money he accumulated in his business he launched out as a broker and became a modern Midas. He moved to New York, where his luck followed him and his fortune multiplied and he was socially successful, and then to London, where his New York experiences were duplicated and at the age of thirty-seven he was called the "Copper King," on account of his wealth, and was well entrenched socially.

CLAIMS COUSIN AS BRIDE.

He then came to New York to claim his cousin as bride, and after their marriage they went to London to live, and during the social season achieved many triumphs.

They lived together but a short time, and then London was astonished at finding that Mrs. Ward, with N. Gibbs Ingraham, a friend since childhood, and his sister had taken a house in London and were entertaining. Mr. Ward continued to entertain at his home, and the friends of herself, and husband were told by Mrs. Ward that they need have no hesitancy about appearing at both houses, as she and her husband were quite good friends. They had simply agreed to disagree, and met quite amiably at many dinner tables in the homes of their friends in London.

Mrs. Ward and her friends, Mr. and Miss Ingraham, divided their time between England, the Continent and America, and it seemed as though there would never be any legal separation. Finally suit was brought for divorce by Mrs. Ward, and after giving her deposition Mrs. Ward and Mr. and Miss Ingraham sailed for Italy, and only returned to America when the divorce was granted.

As soon as divorce proceedings were instituted it became known that Mrs. Ward would become the bride of Mr. Ingraham as soon as she was free, and at the same time it was rumored that he would marry the Dowager Lady Howe. Mrs. Ward married, but Count Ward did not, and is entertaining on a large scale as a bachelor. His sister, Miss Alice Constance Ward, and Captain Cyril Blackburn Tew were married in 1902 and the match was considered a brilliant one.

Annie Estelle Bryan was her maid of honor. Mrs. William Hinkle was matron of honor and Judge Frank E. Daugherty was best man.

The bride is described in Kentucky papers as a lovely, cultured woman who has achieved distinction and an enviable reputation in her chosen art, and as a leader of Southern society with a host of friends who extended warm wishes for her happiness on her departure for her Western home.

Captain Shadburne was born in Texas and is sixty-three years old. He is of commanding appearance and military bearing acquired during an exciting army career, and until his marriage was distinguished by his luxuriant whiskers.

Before returning to California, Captain Shadburne and his bride made a tour through the lakes from Chicago up the St. Lawrence river to Quebec, and since returning he has lost his beautiful flowing whiskers in deference to the wishes of his bride, who likes him better without them.

VIXI.
I have lived and I have loved;
I have waked and I have slept;
I have sung and I have danced;
I have smiled and I have wept;
I have won and I have lost;
I have had my fill of pleasure;
And all these things were weariness.
And some of them were dreariness.
And all these things—but two things—
Were emptiness and pain;
And Love it was the best of them;
And Sleep—worth all the rest of them.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Charles Leitstone, a glazier, of No. 245 Eldridge street, was committed to jail yesterday by Magistrate Wahle because of his inability to furnish $300 bonds to guarantee the payment of $5 a week for the support of his wife, Millie, and their twenty children.

The case is the most remarkable that has come before Magistrate Wahle in his experience on the bench. The facts elicited at the trial show how some of the large families of the East Crowd live on little or nothing in the crowded tenements.

The family has lived for several years in a four-room flat at the Eldridge street address. Magistrate Wahle was not sufficiently curious to ask how it was possible to crowd a family of twenty-two members into so small a space.

Mrs. Leitstone, with ten of her brood tramping after her, appeared in the Essex Market Police Court. When she stated she had left another ten children at home Magistrate Wahle gasped in astonishment.

HUSBAND ADMITS THE CHARGE.
"Is it true that you have twenty children?" he asked of Leitstone.

"Yes, sir," replied the prisoner. "My wife has stated the number correctly."

Mrs. Leitstone declared that when they were married, twenty-six years ago, she was only fifteen years old, while her husband was seventeen. Their first child was born a year later, and the family had been increasing almost at the rate of one each year, the most recent having arrived at No. 245 Eldridge street last year.

"And how have you managed to bring up such a large family in a city like New York, where children are often regarded as an incumbrance?" asked the Magistrate.

"That was simple enough until a month ago," replied Mrs. Leitstone, who is now only forty-one years old and comely. "We lived comfortably and happily. Then my husband found it difficult to find employment in this city and went to Pittsburg to seek a place. He found work and wrote me to join him there with the family. Of course it was impossible for me to do so. I had received only $5 from my husband in the last month. My husband came back yesterday and I promptly had him arrested."

"Are you in want?" asked the Magistrate.

"No, I am not," said the woman. "Several of the elder children are working and contributing to the support of the family."

HEAD OF FAMILY UNDER BONDS.

"I will place your husband under $300 bonds to pay you $5 a week," said the Magistrate.

"But," interposed Leitstone, "it will be impossible for me to obtain bonds. I am perfectly willing to give my family all that I earn, as I have for the last twenty-six years. But I am out of work."

"Then I will commit you to jail until you get the bonds."

"But, Your Honor," protested the prisoner, "I can earn nothing while I am in jail."

"Take the prisoner away," said the Magistrate. "What is the next case?"

Mrs. Leitstone was as much astonished and pained as her husband when he was led away to a cell. She had not anticipated any such drastic action. She had evidently had her husband arrested more to frighten him than anything else. The little army of children was in tears when they learned of their father's fate.

KISS, JUDGE ORDERS REUNITES COUPLE

BROOKLYN, N. Y., July 27.—Fred Lindsay has obeyed the mandate of Magistrate Higginbotham and the Judge announced yesterday that Lindsay had kissed his wife after their long estrangement.

"Well, Judge," the husband said when he appeared in court, "we have come in to tell you that we have kissed and made up. We are going down on Long Island to spend our second honeymoon and we will not be able to appear before you again."

"Well, that is splendid," said the magistrate, beaming on the pair. "And you have really kissed your wife, have you, Lindsay—and was it good?" Unblushingly Lindsay turned to his wife, caught her in his arms and in the presence of the entire courtroom gave her a resounding kiss on the lips. His response satisfied the magistrate.

Lindsay was arraigned before Magistrate Higginbotham a month ago, charged with non-support. Magistrate Higginbotham gave the following order:

"I sentence you one day each week with your wife and baby at Prospect Park or at Coney Island. You need not speak to each other. All you have to do is watch the baby."

"And I further sentence you to kiss your wife each day once," charged the Judge. "You are also to pay her $4 a week for four weeks. You and your wife are to come back here one month from to-day and let me know how the sentence of this court has been carried out. Also, all mothers-in-law must stay away from your home."

prizes are very fine, and will be awarded to the successful players.

BOWLING SPORTING GOSSIP BOXING

GOSSIP FROM EASTER TRACKS

BY "THE SAUNTERER."

Jockey Laramie came in for considerable censure from the spectators at Latonia and also received a sharp reprimand from Judge Murphy for his daily faulty ride on Alma Duffour.

W. A. Lyne and H. A. Jones have purchased Cool Spring Place in Woodford county, Kentucky, from George Cotton of Versailles. It is their intention to establish there an up-to-date breeding farm.

Sam Hildreth says he considers Symm by the best race horse he ever saw, McChesney not excepted.

Oak Duke is showing steady improvement and beginning to fulfill some of the great expectations his owners, Ed Jones, entertained for him. It is said Jones values the colt at $30,000.

Jockey Robbins, who was injured at Brighton Beach last week, has left his bed in the Emergency Hospital, New York. His fractured arm knitting nicely, it is said.

Captain S. S. Brown, it is said, has decided to saddle Symm with a race in 1906 with Hyphen.

Madullah, for the first time in his racing career, was unplaced in the last race at Brighton Beach the other day. However, he was nipped by the narrowest kind of a margin. He was making his first appearance in the colors of P. H. McCaffrey, who claimed him after J. J. McCaffrey big up Caesaraphine in the race of July 25.

Buffalo critics say that the people of the town do not appear to have lost any of their interest in racing since the close of the meeting at Kenilworth Park. The period at the plant on the American side, it is said, served to whet their appetite for the sport and that the attendance at Fort Erie is greater than at the opening of any of the meetings in past seasons at the Canadian track.

Juliette, the two-year-old bay filly by Mr. E. Jones, out of Little Jill, by J. J. Johnson, racing in the interest of N. R. Daniel & Co., was bred by L. H. Ezzell at Wilmington, Ill., and is one of the most consistent performers of her age in this country. In the first of her ten starts to date she was unplaced, was second in the next two, but won the next seven. She has been raced only for cheap purses, hence her winnings are but $1675.

Dr. J. D. Nest, of the Kindergarten Stud, the breeder of Hastings, Plaudt, Handsel, Handsome, Pentecost, Glenheim, Milgrain, Caviar and Clifton Forge, has withdrawn his yearlings from the market and will race his collection of blue-blooded youngsters the coming season. He has engaged the colored trainer, Ed Brown (Brown Dick), for 1906 and he will turn over to him to break in a few weeks his entire band of yearlings. The Nest string will be trained at Louisville.

The licensing committee of the New York Jockey Club met today and granted trainers' licenses to the following: J. J. Talbot Brothers, Phil Chinn, Fred Bruhn and Paul Miles.

Patsy McCue was at Brighton Beach the other day. He has applied for a jockey's license.

Jockey C. Morris is reported as being out of danger and resting easily at the St. Elizabeth Hospital, New York.

John Williams, a stable boy employed by W. L. Thornton, was thrown against a tree at the Indianapolis Fair Grounds recently and killed. At the time he was exercising the horse Robert Turley.

Ocean is at Saratoga and "Diamond Jim" Brady is at the track. Brady is busy Synchro with him in the Great Republic Stakes. Matt Allen is sure that the son of Ocean will be in better form at the Spa than he has been in season.

Judge Price, of Fort Erie, has been asked by four or five prospective purchasers of Eldorado to reinstate the horse, but he has declined.

Tom Ryan is a recent arrival at Fort Erie. He landed there the other day with True Wing, winner of the Kansas City Derby, and nine other horses.

R. M. Cole has at Lexington a yearling broodmare to Burleigh which is pronounced one of the handsomest youngsters in Kentucky.

The noted broodmare, Cinderella, now twenty years old, is in foal to Mazagan.

Sky Ben has become one of the most vicious horses seen on the turf in many a day.

Jockey Burns and Olyphant were suspended for the remainder of the Brighton Beach meeting by the starter for misbehavior at the post in the Seashore Handicap.

Twenty-five of the two-year-old stakes of this season have been won by brothers and sisters or half brothers and half sisters to famous performers of other days. This is a tendency to somewhat refute the prevailing idea that near relatives to noted horses are generally failures.

Joe Donohue, in his day a noted owner and trainer of steeplechasers, died in New York at an advanced age the other day.

Martin Bergen, badly refused intercession by his beholder with a chestnut colt to have his suspension removed.

"Why," he said, "the very first race I ever rode in my life was a race for colts one year by starter Sheridan. That was in the Juvenile Stakes at Morris Park."

G. D. Wilson says that he is satisfied that if Halifax had been completely ridden in his recent races, the brother to Handsarra would now have an unbeaten record.

Former Jockey George Odum inaugurated his career as an owner by acquiring Cassandra at the Keene sale.

Jockey Foy will be permitted to ride for C. Bowman, who has a verbal agreement with H. McCarren, Jr., for second call on the boy's services.

E. R. Bradley, owner of Bad News, has ten yearlings now at the Kentucky Association track in charge of trainer William Baker. These youngsters cost the Chicago turfman an average of $1250 at the recent New York sales. Three are by Sir Dixon and the other seven by Bridgwater. Octagon, De Beauvoir and The Sailor Prince. This is the most expensive bunch of yearlings Bradley has ever owned.

H. McCarren, Jr., has purchased at private terms the horse Dr. Kinney.

Dunning is being schooled through the field at Latonia and is taking kindly to the jumping game.

Got Off Cheap.

He may well think he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted consumption or indigestion, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant, and certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. Sold at all druggists, Seventh and Broadway, Washington, D. C.

RENO RIDERS PLAN RACE TOURNEY

RENO, Nev., July 27.—The Reno Wheelmen are preparing to hold a coast championship bicycle tournament in this city early in August and are now in communication with the leading bicycle clubs in California in regard to the matter. It is proposed to have all the leading clubs on the coast represented and to have races of all distances.

The principal event of the tournament will be a thirty-mile relay race, in which the San Jose, Oakland, Bay City, Reno and New Century clubs will contest for a trophy. A ten-mile Australian pursuit race will also be an event. There will be a large number of short sprints and many valuable medals will be offered as prizes.

The Reno Wheelmen at present hold the championship in fifty-mile relay races, having defeated the San Jose wheelmen in this city a few weeks ago.

CHICAGO, July 27.—Violence growing out of the Teamsters' strike broke out afresh last night. A mob of nearly a thousand persons assaulted a caravan of wagons belonging to a wholesale grocery company while they were returning to the barns of the company. After beating one of the drivers into insensibility the wagon was driven away by the rioters and the horses turned loose. Two sets of new harness were stolen.

FRANKIE NEIL'S PECULIAR STYLE OF FIGHTING WILL BE A PUZZLE TO HARRY TENNY

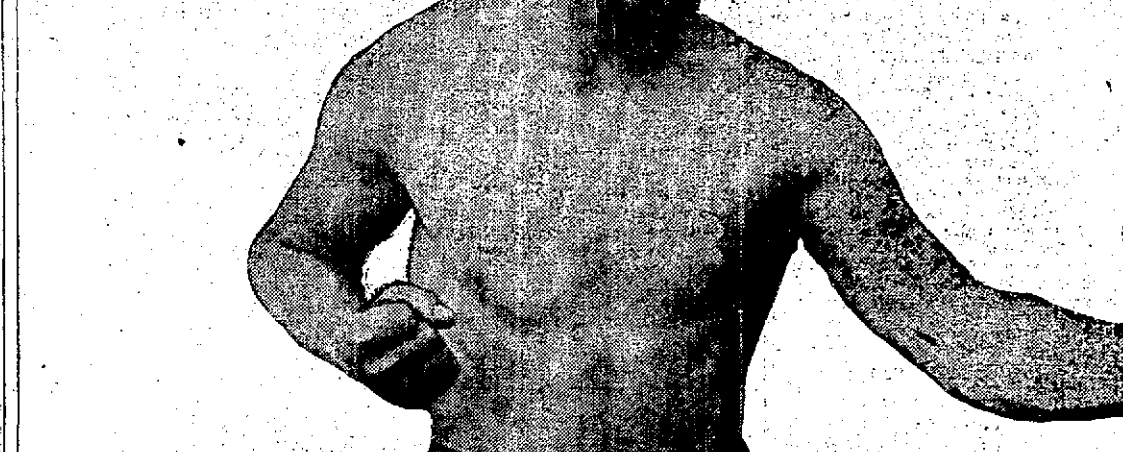

BY ED SMITH.

Tomorrow night Harry Tenny will be asked to box Frankie Neil, the champion in his class in America and acknowledged to be one of the toughest men in the country.

While it seems almost too much to ask from a youngster, Harry is very confident that he will land his knock-out blow before the twenty rounds are over. He has had thirty-nine fights, with thirty-two knock-outs. While this is a great record for an amateur, it must be remembered that the class of men he met in the amateur ranks are much inferior to those boxing in the professional class, and it almost seems that Tenny, like Peterson when he fought Rudy Ryan, is being asked too much of in pitting him against the champion in his first fight.

On comparing the styles of the two men, one finds that neither one could be called a finished boxer, and that they both depend on their ruggedness to win. Tenny's style of fighting is to rush a man off his base and swing his left to the head and follow it with a right cross-counter.

Harry has a very good left hook, but Neil is always in so close to his man that it will be hard for Tenny to land it. Tenny seems a trifle shoulder-bound, and for this reason is not remarkably quick. In fact, he is slower than a man of his weight. Neil, on the other hand, is quick and fast, especially in the mix-ups.

Neil is smaller than Tenny and not as strong, but Frankie can take as much punching as Tenny and has had considerable more experience.

Tenny's hardest time tomorrow night will be to keep away from Neil in the clinches. At this game Neil has a peculiar style of shifting his right foot forward of the left, which brings his left hand, which on account of being naturally left-handed is his best hand, in play on the stomach. It is a style of his own and no other boxer in the business fights as he does in the clinches.

The contest will no doubt be a very interesting one, as both boys will fight hard to win, and if Tenny can win it will be a great feather in his cap, especially since "Fighting Dick" Hyland, a larger and stronger amateur, has had the chance and failed.

The car service is excellent to Colma and no one should stay away on account of the distance, as James Coffroth, who is really "the man behind" at Colma, is the champion of club managers in the way of handling a crowd.

After the Peterson-Ryan fight I landed in Oakland at the same time as I did from the Britt-Sullivan contest, so you see the facilities at Colma are the best.

C. HILLARD IS ONE RANK QUITTER

Big, beefy Charles Hillard ended his pugilistic career last night by laying down to Al Kaufmann at the Hawthorne Club's show. He was not knocked down—he simply quit. Peanuts, rolled-up newspapers and even a carrot were hurled at the receding hulk of humanity.

The car service is excellent to Colma and no one should stay away on account of the distance, as James Coffroth, who is really "the man behind" at Colma, is the champion of club managers in the way of handling a crowd.

After the Peterson-Ryan fight I landed in Oakland at the same time as I did from the Britt-Sullivan contest, so you see the facilities at Colma are the best.

The other bouts terminated as follows: Johnny Roche beat Jimmy Carroll; Jack Rodney knocked out Jack Brown in the fourth round; Pete Sullivan beat Frank Brown; Jim Kane beat Jack Brown; Bill Christie beat Otto Knock; Jack McLaughlin beat Jack Hampton, who lay down in the first round and was disqualified.

The rival camps have been busy places for the past week, the fighters and their many trainers having a routine which they have held to faithfully. At almost the same minute every morning the road work begins, then the light gymnasium exercises, and during the afternoon the heavier indoor training is indulged in.

During the next few days Kelly will be assisted by that clever fighter, Jack Root, who came down from San Francisco especially for the purpose. Jack expects to be behind Kelly on the night of the fight as his chief adviser.

There will be a mighty hard boy to beat, said the light heavyweight. "He is game and clever, knows the ring and is willing to fight. Such qualities will win for any man. But I know Burns is a good man and look for a hard fight."

WHAT'S IN A NAME? "Intestinal indigestion" is the new name for a multitude of stomach troubles. It is the recognized cause of heart disease, kidney troubles, constipation, flatulence, inflammation of the bladder, neuritis, headaches, dizziness, appendicitis, and rheumatism. Green's August Flower goes right after intestinal indigestion and quickly clears it out of the intestinal tract, speedily curing any or all of the ailments mentioned. Trial bottle 25c. Big bottle, 75c. At all druggists.

LOS ANGELES, July 27.—Tommy Burns and Hugo Kelly both assert that they are in great shape for the fight Friday night in the new Pacific Athletic Club building, and the next few days will be devoted to putting on the finishing touches.

The rival camps have been busy places for the past week, the fighters and their many trainers having a routine which they have held to faithfully. At almost the same minute every morning the road work begins, then the light gymnasium exercises, and during the afternoon the heavier indoor training is indulged in.

During the next few days Kelly will be assisted by that clever fighter, Jack Root, who came down from San Francisco especially for the purpose. Jack expects to be behind Kelly on the night of the fight as his chief adviser.

ON THE OTHER ONE GOES TO LOCALS

LOS ANGELES, July 27.—Amidst from Graham's wildness yesterday he pitched good ball, and with his team playing an errorless game behind him, he was able to win from Los Angeles by the score of 4 to 2. Tozer pitched good ball for the locals, but allowed hits when they meant runs to the visitors. Brasher knocked the ball over the left field fence for a home run in the second inning, with no one on bases. Byrnes got a single and a double out of two times up and Smith secured two singles and two passes to first out of four times up. Eager, played Spies behind the bat in the sixth inning. Score:

On comparing the styles of the two men, one finds that neither one could be called a finished boxer, and that they both depend on their ruggedness to win. Tenny's style of fighting is to rush a man off his base and swing his left to the head and follow it with a right cross-counter.

Harry has a very good left hook, but Neil is always in so close to his man that it will be hard for Tenny to land it. Tenny seems a trifle shoulder-bound, and for this reason is not remarkably quick. In fact, he is slower than a man of his weight. Neil, on the other hand, is quick and fast, especially in the mix-ups.

Neil is smaller than Tenny and not as strong, but Frankie can take as much punching as Tenny and has had considerable more experience.

Tenny's hardest time tomorrow night will be to keep away from Neil in the clinches. At this game Neil has a peculiar style of shifting his right foot forward of the left, which brings his left hand, which on account of being naturally left-handed is his best hand, in play on the stomach. It is a style of his own and no other boxer in the business fights as he does in the clinches.

The contest will no doubt be a very interesting one, as both boys will fight hard to win, and if Tenny can win it will be a great feather in his cap, especially since "Fighting Dick" Hyland, a larger and stronger amateur, has had the chance and failed.

The car service is excellent to Colma and no one should stay away on account of the distance, as James Coffroth, who is really "the man behind" at Colma, is the champion of club managers in the way of handling a crowd.

After the Peterson-Ryan fight I landed in Oakland at the same time as I did from the Britt-Sullivan contest, so you see the facilities at Colma are the best.

The other bouts terminated as follows: Johnny Roche beat Jimmy Carroll; Jack Rodney knocked out Jack Brown in the fourth round; Pete Sullivan beat Frank Brown; Jim Kane beat Jack Brown; Bill Christie beat Otto Knock; Jack McLaughlin beat Jack Hampton, who lay down in the first round and was disqualified.

LOS ANGELES, July 27.—The 28-wasches with their strengthened team shut out the Giants yesterday. The feature of the game was Fitzpatrick's pitching. In the eighth inning Portland had three men on bases with but one man out and then failed to connect. The score:

NEWS OF THE DAY FROM THE SUBURBS

IMPORTANT POST FOR BERKELEY PASTOR HAS LUCK

Rev. E. W. Darst to Assign Christian Ministers to Duty During National Convention.

REV. E. W. DARST.

BERKELEY, July 27.—It is to be the lot of a Berkeley minister, Rev. E. W. Darst, to decide where the prominent ministers of the Christian churches that are to assemble in San Francisco next month shall preach in the various pulpits of the bay city. The International Missionary Convention, made up of ministers and laymen of the Christian churches of the country, is to meet in San Francisco from August 17 to August 24. Brilliant preachers, eloquent speakers from all over the land, will be in attendance at this convention and naturally there will be an overabundance of pulpits and wisdom requiring an outlet.

It will be the task of Rev. E. W. Darst of Berkeley to arrange for this outlet. He has been made chairman of what is called the supply committee at the coming convention. He will have a list of all the Christian ministers attending the convention who are available to fill pulpits in the churches of other denominations. From this list Dr. Darst's committee will select able men, assigning them to pulpits in the orthodox churches of San Francisco. These pulpits will be performed at such times as the missionary convention is not in session. The churches of the various denominations have offered their pulpits for the morning and evening services of August 20.

Dr. Darst also has charge of the arrangements for a large number of simultaneous protracted meetings or revivals in the California Christian churches after the convention. These revival meetings will be under the direction of prominent ministers from the East. In Berkeley the revival meeting will be held for Dr. Darst by the Rev. J. H. Spencer of Lexington, Ky. Mr. Spencer is a preacher of great intellectual and spiritual power. He has for years been pastor of the great Central Church in Lexington, which city is the seat of the University of Kentucky, of his Christian Church of the University in Kentucky and a number of other colleges and seminaries. The International Missionary Convention in San Francisco is the annual gathering of the disciples of Christ. Last year at the gathering of the convention in St. Louis more than 21,000 delegates were present. The sessions of the convention in San Francisco will be divided. Use will be made of the First Congregational Church, Native Sons' Hall and the Y. M. C. A. Hall. The first sessions on August 17 and 19 will be under the direction of the Christian Women's Board of the American Christian Women's Society, which is one of the greatest features of these annual conventions. On Saturday night, August 19, there will be a great Christian endeavor meeting in Woodward's Pavilion. The communion services, which is one of the greatest features of these annual conventions, will be held in Woodward's Pavilion Sunday afternoon, August 20. It is expected that 10,000 persons will participate in the communion service.

will be discussed by Josiah Keep. At the conclusion of the sessions, an election of officers for the ensuing year will be held.

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. TRouble COMMITTEE MAKES A REPORT

Improvement Club of Ashby District Hears From Some of Its Members.

BERKELEY, July 27.—A large and enthusiastic gathering of the Ashby Improvement Club was held at the Paralta firehouse last night. A. R. Frame acted as chairman, while J. T. Short was secretary. In opening the meeting Chairman Frame, who was elected president of the club at the last meeting, delivered a short address on the future work of the Ashby organization. He reviewed in detail the things that had already been accomplished under the presidency of Trustee A. L. Sobad.

In the appointing of the new committee for the ensuing year Mr. Frame suggested that they be chosen by general election and not appointed by the president, as has been the case in former years. A vote of thanks was tendered to C. C. Ennis for his faithful services during several terms as secretary of the Ashby Improvement Club. The resolution prepared by the organization protesting against the work on the addition to the Le Conte School, which was presented at the meeting of the Board of Education last night, was read and approved.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Plans Being Made at Fruitvale Monastery.

ELMHURST, July 27.—Miss Ida Margaret Blake of this place is to be married this evening to Lester Green at the home of the bride's parents on Fourteenth street, near Fruitvale avenue. In honor of the occasion the house has been handsomely decorated with palms, flowers and bunting. A small party of relatives and friends will be present at the ceremony.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Mowbray, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Oakland. Afterward the wedding supper will be served and the young couple are to start on the honeymoon trip, the destination being kept a secret.

Already the future home of the contracting parties has been built and furnished. The pretty cottage is located on Sunset avenue, near Davis street.

Miss Blake is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Blake. Her father is a well-known real estate agent here. The groom is a master plumber in business with the bride's brother.

At the meeting of the Fruitvale Board of Trade last night, in its new quarters, a communication was received from the owners of the Derby estate in reply to a request recently made by the Board. It was stated that a modern cement sidewalk would soon be constructed on both sides of the property, which lies at the corner of Fruitvale avenue and Fourteenth street. It is a very large piece of land, and about 1000 feet of sidewalk will be needed to cover the frontage on the main street. There are no buildings at present on the site, which is in the business center of the town.

The committee on streets reported that circular letters would be sent soon to all the property owners in Fruitvale requesting them to keep the weeds on their sidewalks cut down, and repair the walks and curbs when necessary. A plea will also be made for planting shade and ornamental trees in front of the yards. Those which have already been thus set out form one of the chief beauties of the town.

Friends of Miss May Weatheren took her by surprise Tuesday evening by coming to visit her in a body at her home on Elmhurst street. The party was a very pleasant one.

F. H. Meas, the new presiding officer of the local camp of Woodmen, is to start on his vacation next week. He will spend a fortnight at Tahoe.

The use of a bath bag in the daily plunge is particularly cooling and refreshing. A novel invention of the kind may be used seven or eight times before its value is exhausted. This towel requisite is made of a closely woven cheesecloth material containing lavender flowers, balm, oil of almonds and powdered soap, thus combining cleaning properties with delicate fragrance and a softening quality that is first transmitted to the water to act upon the skin, which it smooths and whitens.

Except for a few hours early in the morning the high tension current was off all day yesterday. The electricity to run the cars on the Hayward division was generated by the old plant of steam engines and the huge motor-generator ceased the manager got a telephone message from the mountain power plant and so had the machinery in readiness. The cars were not delayed a minute.

TRouble COMMITTEE

Frame explained that the street force was limited at present and it was his opinion that it would be attended to in due course of time. C. C. Ennis, of the hall committee reported that the work of securing funds for the contemplated hall at Ashby was progressing favorably and a definite report would be submitted at the next meeting. One man had subscribed $200 and two others $100 apiece. There were also several smaller donations. A. R. Frame of the conference committee reported the proceedings of that committee at its last meeting Friday night. The club as a whole was heartily in favor of the advertising project which was decided on at that meeting. J. Badgett was elected a member of the club.

THIS WEDDING IS A SURPRISE

Few Knew That Alameda Couple Were to Wed--Some Encinal Notes.

ALAMEDA, July 27.—A wedding which came as a considerable surprise to local society was that of Frank B. Bryn and Miss Edna Bagnell, which was solemnized in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, San Francisco. To some of the intimate friends of the contracting parties that the wedding was scheduled was known, and a number were hidden to attend the ceremonies, but there had been no formal announcement.

The wedding is the outcome of an acquaintance formed in as commercial a spot as a life insurance office. Both Mr. Bryn and his bride occupied responsible positions with the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company's offices in San Francisco, and their business acquaintance ripened into love.

The wedding ceremony was a pretty one. The bride, a beautiful young woman, wore a gray silk gown and white lace picture hat. She was attended by Miss Ensis of this city, while Oscar Hamilton, also of Alameda, acted as best man. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of a wedding march played by St. Luke's organist and the bride was given into the keeping of the groom by A. Brook of Marysville, a relative.

After the ceremony the couple left for Southern California on their honeymoon. On their return they will take up their residence in Alameda, the groom having provided a cottage.

Mrs. Bryn, nee Bagnell, is a beautiful and accomplished young woman and a well-known worker of Christ's Episcopal Church. Mr. Bryn is now secretary of the San Francisco headquarters of the Metropolitan Insurance Company, having some time ago resigned his connection with the Pacific Mutual. He is a brother of Oscar Bryn, the young newspaper artist, to marry whom Miss Miriam Mathews eloped to Los Angeles a few weeks ago.

DOG POISONER.

ALAMEDA, July 27.—The offer of a large reward for his capture does not seem to have frightened the dog poisoner, who continues to ply his diabolical tricks. The latest case is the destruction of a valuable canine belonging to Bruns & Struna, the coal dealers, which was reported yesterday.

Some time ago the poisoner had a narrow escape from capture. An old man with a basket, accompanied by a young man, was detected almost in the act of throwing a poisoned bait to a dog, which subsequently died. When accused of the offense by Mrs. Julius Ascher of Chapin street, the owner of the dog, the young man jumped out a passing trade. The old man likewise disappeared. Since then neither has been seen, but several dogs have been poisoned.

In every instance the dog destroyed has been a valuable one, and none of the animals which have given offense have been killed. Rewards now aggregating $200 have been offered by owners who have lost dogs and by the State Kennel Club for the arrest and conviction of a man for poisoning a dog in Alameda.

The work of the order was exemplified before the grand officers. After the ceremonial portion of the reception of the officers a banquet was served in the dining hall of the temple.

The hall was beautifully decorated. A large number of guests were in attendance and a very pleasant evening enjoyed.

FUNERAL HELD.

ALAMEDA, July 27.—The funeral of the late Edwin Allen Van Fleet, who died at his residence, 1610 Oak street, will be held from the residence next Friday afternoon under the auspices of Oak Grove Lodge, the local lodge of the Masons.

The deceased was quite well known here, having lived here for five years, but was better known in San Francisco from the fact that he met more people in the discharge of his duties as superintendent of the Salt Railroad.

He came to Sacramento when 16 years old. For twenty years he was connected with the Southern Pacific Company, working his way from minor positions in the operating department to places of responsibility in the machine shops. He was recognized as a railroad man of ability. He left the Southern Pacific on being appointed to his place under the Harbor Commissioners.

Part of U. P. E. C. Celebration at San Leandro.

SAN LEANDRO, July 27.—At the great picnic to San Lorenzo Grove next Sunday as part of the U. P. E. C. celebration, Jesse Woods of Hayward will act as floor manager. He is a past grand president of the lodge. In his labors he will be assisted by Joe Joseph and John Marshall.

The excursion will be a feature of the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the U. P. E. C. It has been decided to hold the affair in San Leandro, except the picnic of the lodge here. Next Saturday evening the publication will begin. There is to be a large meeting of the representatives from the local branches in all the neighboring towns and cities at that time in the handsome new hall of the lodge here. The feature of the evening will be a speech by W. H. Langdon, the San Francisco superintendent of schools. W. S. Gloria of Sacramento will make the Portuguese address.

Antonio Fonte, another past grand president will be in charge of the grand initiation. Twenty-five new members will be taken in at that time, one for each year of the existence of the organization.

Miss Mamie Vieira, and Mamie Lewis are to recite for the company. Charles Reid and Mrs. Anna Reid have agreed to sing in part of the evening's program.

There will be further justification on Tuesday following. Details of this part are being settled by the members of the committee, and grand surprise is in store for the guests on that day. It will be August 1, really, the day of the anniversary.

A large number of electricians are working in the town now putting up the wires to illuminate the streets for the big parade, Saturday evening. There are to be several thousands of colored incandescents, strung on the buildings and across the town.

The tall flagpole at the plant is the center of a system of radiating lines of light. The wires will be strung by the men five sons during their celebration later in the month.

DROWNED BY A DOG.

A sportive mastiff was the cause of a minor accident yesterday. Mrs. D. C. Kidwell was starting across the street when she was knocked down by a dog animal bounded against her and knocked the woman from her feet. By-standers picked her up and carried her to her home on Davis street. She was not hurt beyond the nervous shock.

The mastiff, which is still only a young one, is the property of J. B. Lande, a saloon man in town. The accident was not caused by viciousness.

TWENTY VOLUMES.

Twenty volumes of the fifty-five ordered for the new library came to town yesterday and were installed on the shelves. The remainder will be along in a day or two. The collection is an excellent one, though costing only $40.

The Suburban Electric Company installed a forty horse power motor last week in the manufactory of James Greenwood & Co. in Newark. James Burke was in charge of the work for the company, which has its headquarters in San Leandro.

LETTERS ADVERTISED.

For Over Fifty Years Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It costs only 10 cents.

BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL

HOLDS ELECTION

J. B. Bowen is Again Chosen Business Agent After Lively Contest.

J. B. BOWEN, Re-elected Business Agent of Building Trades' Council.

At the election of officers for the Building Trades' Council of Alameda county last night J. B. Bowen was re-elected to fill the position of business agent for the ensuing term. D. C. Crawford made a strong fight for the office, and was narrowly defeated by Mr. Bowen, who has held the place several years with satisfaction to the council.

Next Tuesday evening the installation of officers will be held. Special attention will be paid to the preparations for celebrating Labor Day. The committee in charge of the affair held a meeting last night and decided to bring in a full report of progress up to date at the meeting next Tuesday.

HAVE RIBBONS.

"The red badge of courage" is to be worn by all union bartenders in good standing this month. The bits of ribbon have been arranged by the committee and their final disposition settled last night at the meeting of the Oakland Local, No. 122. For each month until January the men will wear a ribbon of a different color, so that all customers may know if their drinks are served by a good unionist. All the unions in town are to be officially notified of the new feature by the members of the barkeepers. Last night a committee consisting of Fred Joseph, William Kelsey, D. Estrayan and F. Young was appointed to visit the locals in town and make speeches regarding the use of the badges.

The committee on the hall given several weeks ago made a final report by Chairman Wickham. A profit of over $67 has been turned into the treasury. The committee was dismissed with a vote of thanks.

CENTRAL COUNCIL.

There was a committee from the Engineers' Union present last night at the session of the executive board of the Central Labor Council. It was reported that the disagreement had been settled satisfactorily by the union. The visitors were J. M. Gallagher, M. McEwen and H. Le Perle. There was a report that the preparations for Labor Day were progressing slowly. An excursion to some point of interest will be the principal feature of the day with the unions affiliated with the Central Labor Council. It has been definitely decided not to have any parade on Labor Day.

MADE GOOD HIS DEFALCATION

ALEC WATERS PAYS BACK MONEY TO COMPANY AND FRIENDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—A pleasant bit of news was furnished the railroad traffic men along the street yesterday in the announcement that Alec Waters, the former city ticket agent of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, who absconded four years ago after a reckless night career in the tenderloin, had settled in full his shortage with the steamship company, and had properly atoned for a number of breaches of trust among the railroad men, who had regarded him as a friend.

Waters' sudden disappearance from this city was a great surprise to his many friends, who had welcomed him as an associate and worthy of every confidence that one man could repossess in another. The fact that he had stolen his employer's money, and then, on the eve of his flight, borrowed money from his most intimate friends upon misrepresentations, for a time caused the erring young fellow to be bitterly condemned, but later when it was learned that he had gone to a secluded place in the East and was trying to repay the money he had misappropriated and live down the past, the sympathy of his former associates in this city, where he was extremely popular, was extended to him.

That this sympathy was not misplaced is now evidenced in Waters' act of reimbursing those who suffered by his peculations. It is not the practice of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company to revive the past failings of its employees who have gone wrong, but in Waters' case it was deemed just to him that his latest act should be made public in order that it should redound to his credit. Waters is now in New York, enjoying lucrative employment in a big institution where he has been quietly struggling for several months to save the necessary money with which to erase from memory the sad termination of what four years ago appeared to be a most promising career for one of the brightest young traffic men in this city.

G. W. HALLOCK HAS SENT RESIGNATION

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—The local transportation world was considerably surprised yesterday when the announcement was made that G. W. Hallock, for the last five years city passenger agent of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, had resigned. Hallock will retire from his position on August 1 and will engage in a more lucrative and private business. It is announced by General Passenger Agent C. D. Dunham that Hallock's successor is to be Henry Jacobson, who has been chief clerk at the uptown ticket office of the company for ten years. Jacobson's appointment is a popular one on the street, for he has a host of friends among the railroad men, who, while regretting to lose the association of Hallock, are pleased to hear of Jacobson's advancement.

It is also given out that the company has decided to create the position of district passenger agent, but Dunham declined to make public his choice for the place, explaining that negotiations between himself and the desired party have not been satisfactorily completed. He, however, stated that the man he has in mind is at present engaged in railroad business outside of San Francisco.

DR. WOOLSEY TO GO TO ALASKA

Dr. E. H. Woolsey will sail Saturday morning for Alaska. He expects to be absent from Oakland about four weeks.

RAILROADS WANT A REDUCTION

SACRAMENTO, July 27.—F. G. Beatty, representing the Nevada County Narrow Gauge Railroad, appeared before the State Board of Equalization yesterday for the purpose of discussing valuations and assessments.

The corporation has twenty-seven miles of roadbed. Its gross earnings for the year were $128,134.83. Its operating expenses were $90,137.53, leaving a gross income of $37,997.30. Deductions for interest on the bonds amounted to $16,131 and $30,816.89 was expended in redeeming 5 per cent bonds, so the balance sheet shows a deficit of $3,950.89 as the result of the road's operation.

Beatty stated that the outlook for the future was not encouraging, as the projected electric road running out of that section to Auburn would materially reduce their income. In consequence he requested a reduction of his assessment.

E. W. Clark, representing the Pacific Coast Railway, was also in attendance on the board.

This company has seventy-six miles of road, but the valuation of rails and roadbed are not given in his report. The gross earnings for the year were $145,164.97 and the operating expenses $112,154.55, leaving a gross income of $32,010.42. From this is deducted $5,003.58 for taxes and $5,242.69 was expended in betterments and additions, leaving a net surplus of $1,764.15.

R. M. FITZGERALD'S LITTLE SON DEAD

SUMMER SEASON NOT DULL

WANT PRODUCTS OF COUNTY

MRS. GEORGE D. HALLAHAN SHOWS HOW OAKLAND HAS GROWN

The wonderful growth of Oakland in the past few years is attested in many ways, but it may be doubted if this growth has ever before been indicated by social activity of the summer season, record of which is obtainable through the catering firm of Mrs. George D. Hallahan, the headquarters of which are located at the southwest corner of Alameda and Twelfth streets.

Mrs. George D. Hallahan, who is the experienced and competent manager of the enterprise, says that the summer season is usually the dulllest of the year in the matter of catering to people who enjoy the varied functions of social life. This is due, she says, to the fact that so many of the smart set are away from their homes at resorts of pleasure. This year, however, Mrs. George D. Hallahan says her business has been more than twice what it has ever been at this season. The resources of her establishment and the corps of chefs, confectioners, waiters and attendants have been kept busy in catering to patrons for every kind of social function, ranging from a luncheon to an elaborate dinner for the most exclusive set.

This remarkable showing is attributed to the enormous number of new people of means who have taken up their residence here, and, consequently, more people of that class now remain at home at a given time during the summer than was formerly the case.

In this connection it may be stated that Mrs. George D. Hallahan's catering business, of which she has full charge, is the most extensive and successful in this section of the State. Mrs. Hallahan enjoys the patronage of the exclusive families, not only of Oakland, but in all the bay cities. She is able, at the shortest possible notice, to supply viands for the entertainment of guests at luncheons, teas, parties, balls, weddings, picnics, dinners and banquets. She has an establishment going night and day. With the viands go everything in the way of service, tables, lights, delf, china, linen, silver and waiters. Delivery is made at any place desired and everything is removed at the close of the festivity under the direction of Mrs. Hallahan's assistants. Nothing is left for patrons except to entertain their guests. Mrs. Hallahan's terms are in keeping with the service rendered and are always consistent and reasonable.

The success of Mrs. Hallahan's business is a credit to herself and the people of Oakland because it supplies a want which otherwise could not be satisfied save at much greater expense and annoyance at a distance from home.
